(Duly in session at the
Houston Oaks Hotel,
Houston, Texas)

ORDER OF THE BOARD

On the 16th day of September, 1972, in response to charges filed against Jonathan Hyman, and after his waiver of requirement of the ten-day notice of such charges, said Jonathan Hyman personally appeared before the Texas State Board of Chiropractic Examiners at their hearing at the Houston Oaks Hotel, September 16, 1972, where at there was rendered and entered the following order: On this the 16th day of September, 1972, came on to be heard charges filed against Jonathan Hyman, D.P.M. alleging a violation on the part of Jonathan Hyman of Subdivision (d), Subpart (4) of Article 4570, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and Jonathan Hyman appearing in person and pleading guilty to such charge, and the Board after hearing and discussing the matter with Jonathan Hyman, D.P.M., is of the opinion that Jonathan Hyman did violate Subdivision (d), Subpart (4) of Article 4570, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and such violation is a basis for revocation of the Chiropractic License of Jonathan Hyman in accordance with Article 4573, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

IT IS ACCORDINGLY ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the license to practice Chiropractic within the State of Texas, heretofore held by Jonathan Hyman, D.P.M., is revoked and cancelled, provided that the execution of this Order and revocation be, and the same is hereby stayed, and Jonathan Hyman is placed upon probation for a period of Three years upon the following terms and conditions:

1) That Jonathan Hyman shall comply with and not be found guilty of violating any laws of the grade of felony, or a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, of this State or of any other State, and shall comply with all of the laws contained in Article 4570, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

~~2) That Jonathan Hyman shall, under no circumstances, violate any law in the State of Texas or of any other State in the United States, other than misdemeanors involving moral turpitude.~~

Upon full compliance with the terms and conditions set forth, and upon expiration of the probation, the said license of Jonathan Hyman, D.P.M., shall have full privileges, free and clear, of the terms of the probationary period herein imposed; provided, however, in the event that Jonathan Hyman, D.P.M. violates or fails to comply with any of the terms or conditions of this Order during said period of probation, the Board, upon receipt by it of said evidence thereof, shall immediately and forthwith terminate said probation, cancel and revoke said stay of execution, and direct that the order of revocation of his Chiropody license herein made immediately become effective and such license be cancelled.

Rendered and entered this 16th day of September, 1972.
